

ORG	Are your PTs seeing all Crutch trainings?	Designated people/trained people?	How large is the demand?	How do you staff?	other recs?
A	Inpatients and on -call clinic	PACU nurses trained; working on Outpt nurses	difficulty with late calls or PT being busy	trained nurses to cover late, PACU	intensive educational package, includes video, renew staff education yearly
B	one day surgery complicated trainings	trained nurses on crutches and walkers	2-3 week
C	pre-op on consult; nurses screen patients		2-3 week	acute therapists / trained nurses	stock gait belts and crutches in day surgery
D	surgical, EC and inpt	PT and ortho techs for after hours EC		8-530; 9-2 weeknds for PT	pre-op or teach family
E	IP PT	PT and ER staff	daily 3-5	inpt PT	working on plan for seeing kids pre-
F	ortho techs and RNS primarily; PT for PACU some	ortho techs and RNs	min	trained ortho
G	Inpt	cast room techs, AT - PT for complicated or challenging pts	min		PT trains ortho and signs off; Ortho uses gait training CPT even if not done by PT
H	pots op and some clinical	ortho cast techs do simple patients and re-	1-3 day	slots built in daily for PT to cover post op
I	post op	PT	1-2 day	nurses and ortho techs trained
J	PT acute	trained PACU nurses for non-complex		atcs in ortho clinics	how do people charge for this?
K	sx, primary, ortho, ER - PT	ortho techs cover			